CALGARY, ALBERTA – Maple Leaf Green World Inc. (TSXV: MGW) (“Maple Leaf” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it has retained Cannabis Compliance Inc. (“CCI”) to expedite its ACMPR application for a license to produce medical cannabis from Health Canada (the “ACMPR License”). The Company’s objective is to obtain the ACMPR License from Health Canada before the end of this year.

CCI, as one of Canada’s original cannabis consulting firms, offers risk mitigation, due diligence, and regulatory licensing consulting services for commercial cannabis producers and resellers. CCI has extensive expertise in cultivation/horticulture, security designs/tender, facility designs/build-outs, quality assurance programs, and financial planning. CCI has strategic partnerships globally to secure investment partners for its clients, general contractors for buildouts, security tenders, equipment suppliers, media, government relations, and enterprise resource planning software. For over a decade, CCI’s experienced team has been involved in commercial cannabis operations in Canada delivering proven results for their clients.

As a result of the Company’s engagement of CCI, Maple Leaf has agreed to not move forward with its previously announced arrangement with TheraCann International Benchmark Corporation respecting the design, engineering, and construction of its cannabis cultivation facilities in Telkwa, B.C.

Health Canada Streamlines Medical Cannabis Production Licensing Process

Health Canada has announced that they will now be expediting the medical cannabis licensing process in order to get more applicants licensed in a timely manner. Health Canada has strategically reviewed the licensing process and made constructive changes that will help applicants attain licenses in order to supply Canada’s medical cannabis market. Maple Leaf Green World Inc. understands companies that are already in queue with Health Canada will see their applications move faster through the review stages and will attain a license to sell earlier under this new review protocol.
